CHAPTER ONE

SAVINGS ON BUYING TRAVEL PASS

TOPCASHBACK.COM

Topcashback.com works by earning a commission from retailers for sending customers to their websites and then passing a large portion of that commission back to the user as cashback.

POINTS TO REMEMBER

To get started, simply sign up on TopCashback.com using the link provided—CLICK HERE.

Once your account is created, the important part begins. Choose the retailer you want to purchase from and make sure to access their website through the TopCashback link. This step allows TopCashback to track your visit and makes you eligible for the cashback.

Cashback usually takes around four months to be credited, but the rewards are worth it, often offering 10–14% of your total booking value. Once the amount is confirmed, you can withdraw it in USD by loading it onto a Prepaid Virtual Card, and using it to spend anywhere. You earn additional 5% for converting your earnings to Prepaid Card.

I've created a Mind-Map graphic to guide you through the entire process. In the next section, I'll explain the website we'll be using to purchase your Travel Pass.

TOPCASHBACK.COM

To purchase my Swiss Pass, I signed up on TopCashback.com and chose a vendor (mentioned below) that was offering 14% cashback at the time.

I've included my TopCashback referral link here, which helps support this guide by earning me a small bonus if you decide to join. Rest assured, I only recommend this service because I use it myself to save money on every purchase. CLICK HERE.

CHAPTER ONE

SAVINGS ON BUYING TRAVEL PASS

OPTION 1-KLOOK.COM

Kindly read all options before choosing which Cashback trick you want to apply.

Klook is an online travel booking platform that allows users to discover and book a wide range of travel experiences, attractions, and services globally. Currently, it has the following Travel Pass listed on their website:

- 1.Swiss Travel Pass
- 2.Half Fare Card
- 3.Bernese Oberland Pass

The pass prices mentioned above are consistent with the official rates on the SBB website (though it's always wise to confirm them yourself).

TOPCASHBACK.COM+ KLOOK.COM

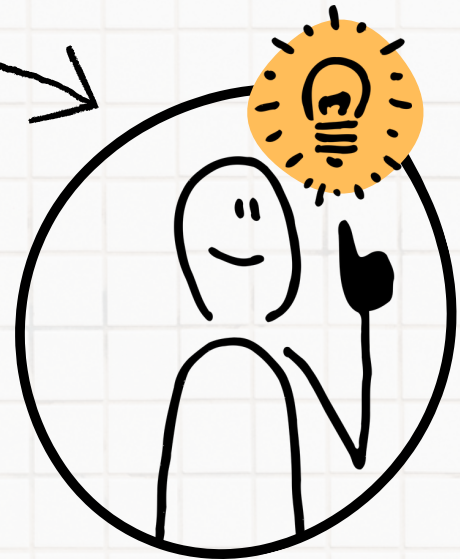

To gain maximum benefit for purchasing the pass, we use Klook.com to purchase our Travel Pass. Topcashback.com regularly provides upto 14% cashback on activities booked from Klook.com (excl. the Exclusion List). If we book our travel passes on Klook.com via Topcashback link, we can earn upto 14% cashback. We shall be discussing how to book on Klook.com via TopCashBack in the next page.

IMPORTANT TIP

TopCashBack regularly comes up with the offer on Klook.com with upto 14% cashback. When I initially was planning to book my passes, it was offering me 5% cashback. I waited for a week for "improved" offer to appear on TopCashBack.com. So, if the website shows lesser cashback, you can wait for a week for the improved offer to show up.
